THE ARTS DIARY

EXHIBITION

Photomedia artist Garth Knight combines jewellery and precious gems into a glittering menagerie of exotic creatures, including Asiatic dragons, seahorses, the death's-head hawkmoth (which has a skull-shaped pattern on its body) and a skull made from pearls, diamonds and X-rays. Bestiary, his latest exhibition, uses minute details to evoke movement, life and sparkle – reminiscent of the bejewelled scarab beetles of ancient Egypt.

- ▶ Today until May 28, Tuesdays to Saturdays, 10 to 6pm, Iain Dawson Gallery, 443 Oxford Street, Paddington. For more information see www.iaindawson.com.
