

MONOCOLUMN

—A daily bulletin of news and opinion

One of Australia's most exciting artists shows at Sydney's Iain Dawson Gallery

Weekend agenda: 6/7 August

August 6, 2011 — Global
Writer: Monocle staff

Something for your weekend: Monocle's global selection includes an inaugural Polish film festival, landscape paintings in Sydney and the return of a leading contemporary art expo in Japan.

ARCHIVES

Catch up with previous editions of our daily bulletin

August 2011

- 13 : Syria : Meanwhile, in Syria... Assad refuses to budge
- 13 : Global : Weekend agenda: 13/14 August
- 12 : London : UK Riots: Living in a ghost town
- 11 : Paris : UK Riots Part 2: Do French and British societies suffer the same social ills?
- 11 : London : UK Riots Part 1: Politicians vacillate and hesitate wording a response
- 10 : London : UK Riots Part 2: Learn to love your high street
- 10 : London : UK Riots Part 1: Solidarity of the broom brigade
- 9 : London : UK Riots Part 2: Rethinking the security forces' response
- 9 : London : UK Riots Part 1: Who's in charge? Riots expose a lack of leadership
- 8 : Moscow : Moscow's crazy paving
- 6 : Global : Weekend agenda: 6/7 August
- 5 : Sydney : Brothel clientele can't get enough satisfaction
- 4 : Tehran : Water fight incurs the wrath of the Islamic Revolution
- 3 : Warsaw : Polish plane crash – the blame game begins in earnest
- 2 : Washington : Obama, king of compromise
- 1 : Nicosia : Crunch time for Christofias

July 2011

June 2011

May 2011

April 2011

March 2011